Our Service

As part of your distribution chain, we recognise the importance of providing a quality, reliable service so that you are able to do the same for your customers.

We work with our strategic distribution partner UPS to provide a next working day delivery service for all orders placed before 5 p.m. (please allow up to 48 hours for Scotland, Northern Ireland and the Isle of Man).

Orders are picked and packed using hand-held laser barcode scanners, streamlining your processes and ours, allowing us to work through your orders with speed and accuracy.

Our full product range is listed in the Luckins Database. Products are available exclusively through UK national and independent wholesalers.

Our People

Our business is driven by a team of experienced sales, operations and customer service individuals. Our team is professional, knowledgeable and ready to fulfill your needs.

You have access to a Regional Sales Manager and Internal Sales Support team member. They work with you to take care of your business requirements and help you to help your customers.

Our technical support team is on-hand to answer your technical queries and provide data sheets, IES data files and lighting guides.

Our logistics and warehouse operations team is well-equipped and dedicated to despatching your orders accurately and efficiently to wherever they are needed, on time every time.

Your Choice

We want to make sure you provide your customers with quality commercial LED lighting products as and when they need them. Our service is tailored to work for you, and with many of our products covered by a 5 Year Extended Warranty, we want to give you the peace of mind you need when putting your trust in a supplier.
